With Gratitude

Special thanks to East Liberty Presbyterian Church for hosting this exhibit and the series of exhibits featuring member artists. I am grateful to Phil Jamison for overseeing this project; to the Music, Worship and the Arts Committee for their support of the arts in the life of the church; and to my family, friends and fellow artists for their encouragement.

Twenty-five percent of sales will be donated to ELPC in support of the arts program.

Keep within your heart a green bough and the singing bird will come.
