TIME OF PREPARATION

“... human beings have the undesirable distinction in nature of being the only ones running away from the reality that has been given to them. Nothing else in nature does this. ... we are the only species that spends so much time trying to be something or someone else.” — Robert Wicks

“These roses under my window make no reference to former roses or to better ones; they are for what they are; they exist with God today. There is no time to them. There is simply the rose; it is perfect in every moment of its existence. Before a leaf-bud has burst, its whole life acts; in the full-blown flower there is no more; in the leafless root there is no less. Its nature is satisfied, and it satisfies nature, in all moments alike.” — Ralph Waldo Emerson

“Finally, I am coming to the conclusion that my highest ambition is to be what I already am.” — Thomas Merton
