As a diverse community of believers, we strive to follow God – the Creator who calls us, Jesus who teaches us, and the Spirit who empowers us. We show God’s unconditional love by providing a refuge for spiritual growth, ardently pursuing justice, and extending Christ’s radical hospitality to all. (Strategic Vision mission statement, 2011)

Florence Beatrice Price (1887-1953) was born in Little Rock, Arkansas and graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music in 1906. She was the first African-American woman composer to have a composition performed by a major symphony orchestra. Her Symphony No. 1 in E Minor was first performed by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in 1933.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:
Holy God, you are our faithful lover, our generous parent, our patient teacher, our constant friend. We live by the hope of your promises, seek to follow your way, and rely on the gift of your Spirit, by whose power we breathe and move and pray. Amen.

TIME OF PREPARATION
“Across the ages the church in its worship has prayed for the church universal, the world, all in authority, and those in distress or need. To abide in God’s love is to share God’s concern for the world. Our prayers should therefore be as wide as God’s love and as specific as God’s tender compassion for the least ones among us.”
— Presbyterian Church Book of Common Worship

MINISTRY OF MUSIC
“Adoration”
Dr. Edward Alan Moore, organ
Florence Price

Please use this time to fill out the red Friendship pads and for quiet worship preparation.

CALL TO CONFESSION
The Rev. Dr. Randall K. Bush

PRAYER OF CONFESSION
The Rev. Dr. Bush
Ever-faithful God, how often we turn away from you, yet you remain constant to us. We run from you, but you call us back. In our words and our deeds, we disappointed and dishonor you, yet you still profess your love for us. Forgive our faithless ways. Increase our gratitude that we might grow in faithfulness to you and merciful service for our neighbors; for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

SUNG RESPONSE — HYMN #464

“Our Father, Which Art in Heaven”

Our Father, which art in heaven: hallowed-a be thy name.
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done: hallowed-a be thy name.

On earth as it is in heaven: hallowed-a be thy name.
Give us this day our daily bread: hallowed-a be thy name.

And forgive us all our debts: hallowed-a be thy name.
As we forgive our debtors: hallowed-a be thy name.

And lead us not into temptation: hallowed-a be thy name.
But deliver us from evil: hallowed-a be thy name.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory: hallowed-a be thy name.
Forever and ever, amen: hallowed-a be thy name.

OFFERTORY “City Called Heaven” arr. Josephine Poelinitz

I am a pilgrim, a pilgrim of sorrow. I’m left in this wide world, this wide world alone.
Oh I ain’t got no hope. Got no hope for tomorrow. I’m trying to make it. Make heaven my home.

Sometimes I’m tossed and I’m driven, Lord. Sometimes I just don’t know which way to turn.
Oh I heard of a city, a city called heaven. I’m trying to make it. Make heaven my home.

Summer Film Festival — Aug 4 and 18
Join the Mission Board Committees on these Sundays after worship for their Summer Film Festival:

 Aug 4 — Urban Roots
Once an industrial powerhouse of a lost American era, Detroit has been devastated by the loss of half its population due to the collapse of manufacturing. But now, in the empty lots, in the old factory yards, and in-between the sagging blocks of housing, seeds of change are taking root. Dedicated citizens have started an urban environmental movement with the potential to transform not just a city after its collapse, but also a country after the end of its industrial age. Urban Roots shows Detroiters working to fulfill their vision for locally-grown, sustainably farmed food in a city where people—as in much of the county—have found themselves cut off from real food.
Sponsored by the Justice Committee (94 minutes)

 Aug 18 — BlacKkKlansman
From visionary filmmaker Spike Lee comes the incredible true story of an American hero. African-American detective Ron Stallworth sets out on a dangerous mission: infiltrate and expose the Ku Klux Klan with the aid of a more seasoned colleague, Flip Zimmerman. Together, they team up to take down the extremist hate group as the organization aims to sanitize its violent rhetoric to appeal to the mainstream.
Sponsored by the Peace Committee (134 minutes)
As a caring congregation of faith, we ask you to remember the following people in your prayers:

Craig Cannon,
Molly Dimond-Stephany's sister-in-law Andrea,
Liz Hopkins’ mother Margery,
Morris Jordan, Lee Lewand, Gail Mallory, Rhonda Perroz,
ELPC employee Robert Polk and his wife,
Heather Schoenewolf’s friend Tony,
aunt Mary Lou and uncle Jim,
Tim Sergi’s sister Kimberly, Pat Valoon, and for those in the criminal justice system who are homeless.

Condolences to David and Heather Schoenewolf on his father’s passing.

Special Fellowship Time
Honoring Anthony Williams — Aug 18
Anthony Williams has served as a youth worker at ELPC for over 18 years. As an integral part of our youth ministry team, Mr. Anthony has nurtured the faith of generations of teens at ELPC, chaperoned dozens of Mission Trips and retreats, led a basketball ministry for youth in the community, and supported Confirmands on their journey to adult membership at ELPC. Whether through an interactive Bible Study or a game of Spades, Mr. Anthony has taught the love of God in Christ to all, and has modeled what it means to put one’s faith in action. Late this spring, Mr. Anthony was named Head of School of The Neighborhood Academy. With this exciting transition in his life, Mr. Anthony has discerned the need to step down from his role at ELPC to dedicate his time and energy to his new position. We give thanks for Mr. Anthony — for his impact on the lives of many here at ELPC and at TNA.
We will celebrate his 18 years of service during a special fellowship time in his honor, following the 10 am worship service on Aug 18. Please join us to thank him and wish him well on the next leg of his journey!
