Auditions for Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre Youth Scholarships

Saturday April 11, 2015

The Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre School is auditioning dancers between the ages of 5-8 to receive a full scholarship to study classical ballet during the 2015-2016 season.

Who is the audition for?

Students must be 5-8 years of age by September 1, 2015. While no previous dance experience is necessary, students must meet the following criteria:

- Talent for training in ballet and other dance styles
- Desire, commitment, and discipline to study dance in a training academy
- Ability to get to and from classes on a regular basis
- Qualify for the Free and Reduced Lunch program (Parents proof of eligibility is required. Letter from school or copies of paystub)

Where will the audition be held?

Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre Studios
2900 Liberty Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15201

When will the audition take place?

Registration begins at 1:15 pm

Audition begins promptly at 2:00 pm (latecomers will not be permitted to participate)

What will the audition be like?

The audition will be a basic dance class taught by PBT School faculty members of the Children's and Student Divisions. Students DO NOT need to prepare any dances for the audition.

What should my child wear to the audition?

Ballet clothing is preferred. If you don't have ballet clothing, that's okay! Please wear fitted clothing such as t-shirt, shorts, opaque leggings and socks.

Girls: leotard, tights, and ballet slippers. Hair should be pulled up and away from the face.

Boys: T-shirt, tights, and ballet slippers.

Will parents be allowed to watch the audition?

The audition is for students only. During the audition, a special "Get to know PBT and Ballet" information session will be held for parents and family. Refreshments will be provided.

How do I reserve a spot for my child at the audition?

Please call 412-454-9109 to reserve a spot for your child today! Space is limited!
