As a diverse community of believers, we strive to follow God – the Creator who calls us, Jesus who teaches us, and the Spirit who empowers us. We show God’s unconditional love by providing a refuge for spiritual growth, ardently pursuing justice, and extending Christ’s radical hospitality to all. (Strategic Vision mission statement, 2011)

JULY 24, 2016 — 10 AM SUMMER WORSHIP TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TIME OF PREPARATION

Praise me, says God, and I will know that you love me. Curse me, says God, and I will know that you love me. Praise me or curse me and I will know that you love me. Sing out my graces, says God, raise your fist against me and revile, says God. Sing out graces or revile, reviling is also a kind of praise, says God. But if you sit fenced off in your apathy, says God, if you sit entrenched in: "I don't give a hang," says God, if you look at the stars and yawn, if you see suffering and don't cry out, if you don't praise and you don't revile, then I created you in vain, says God. (Aaron Zeitlin, "If You Look at the Stars")

Who made the world? Who made the swan, and the black bear? Who made the grasshopper? This grasshopper, I mean the one who has flung herself out of the grass, the one who is eating sugar out of my hand, who is moving her jaws back and forth instead of up and down—who is gazing around with her enormous and complicated eyes. Now she lifts her pale forearms and thoroughly washes her face. Now she snaps her wings open, and floats away. I don't know exactly what a prayer is. I do know how to pay attention, how to fall down into the grass, how to kneel down in the grass, how to be idle and blessed, how to stroll through the fields, which is what I have been doing all day. Tell me, what else should I have done? Doesn't everything die at last, and too soon? Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life? (Mary Oliver, "The Summer Day")

#1 — GOD IS SO GOOD

1 God is so good; God is so good;
2 God cares for me; God cares for me;
3 God loves me so; God loves me so;
4 God is so good; God is so good;

God is so good; God's so good to me.
God cares for me; God's so good to me.
God loves me so; God's so good to me.
God is so good; God's so good to me.

The exact origins of this chorus celebrating God's providential care are not clear, but it seems to have arisen during the 1970s. Because the text changes so little, the slowly rising four-note pattern of the tune provides the primary source of energy within its five-note range.

#2 — ALL CREATURES OF OUR GOD AND KING

Unison

1 All crea-tures of our God and King, lift up your voice
 2 O broth-er wind with clouds and rain, you nur-ture gifts
 3 O broth-er fire, so warm and bright, chase off the shadows of the night. Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia!

 or sor-row grieve, Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia!

Unison

O broth-er sun with gold-en beam, O sis-ter moon O sis-ter wa-ter, flow-ing clear, make mu-sic for Dear moth-er earth, who day by day un-folds such bless-Christ bears your bur-dens and your fears; so, e-ven in

Sometimes called "The Canticle of the Sun," this cosmic roll call allows human beings to give voice to all creation. One of the earliest religious poems in the Italian language, it is made even more expansive by this broad, repetitive melody with interspersed "Alleluias."

Harmony

with sil - ver gleam, sing prais - es! Al - le - lu - ia!
your Lord to hear. Sing prais - es! Al - le - lu - ia!
ings on our way, sing prais - es! Al - le - lu - ia!
the midst of tears, sing prais - es! Al - le - lu - ia!

The Harmony section consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature. The music features a melody in the upper staff and a supporting harmonic line in the lower staff, primarily using chords and moving lines.

Unison

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

The Unison section consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature. The music is written for unison, with both staves following the same melodic line. The section concludes with a double bar line and a final chord in the bass staff.

#3 — JOYFUL, JOYFUL, WE ADORE THEE

1 Joy - ful, joy - ful, we a - dore thee, God of glo - ry, Lord of love!
2 All thy works with joy sur-round thee; earth and heaven re-lect thy rays;
3 Mor-tals, join the hap-py cho-rus which the morn-ing stars be-gan.

Hearts un-fold like flowers be-fore thee, o-pen-ing to the sun a - bove.
stars and an-gels sing a-round thee, cen-ter of un-bro-ken praise.
Love di-vine is reign-ing o'er us, join-ing all in heav-en's plan.

Melt the clouds of sin and sad-ness; drive the dark of doubt a - way.
Field and for-est, vale and moun-tain, flower-y mead-ow, flash - ing sea,
Ev - er sing-ing, march we on-ward, vic - tors in the midst of strife.

Giv - er of im - mor-tal glad-ness, fill us with the light of day.
chant - ing bird and flow-ing foun-tain, call us to re - joice in thee.
Joy - ful mu-sic leads us sun-ward in the tri-umph song of life.

This well-known melody was created to provide a choral setting for J. C. F. von Schiller's poem, "An die Freude" (To Joy), as the final movement of the composer's Ninth Symphony. The author, a prominent Presbyterian pastor and author, wrote the words with this tune in mind.

#5 — O SAVIOR, IN THIS QUIET PLACE

1 O Sav-ior, in this qui-et place, where an-y-one may kneel,
2 If pain of bod-y, stress of mind, de-stroys my in-ward peace,
3 If self up-on its sick-ness feeds and turns my life to gall,
4 You nev-er said "You ask too much" to an-y trou-bled soul.

I al-so come to ask for grace, be-liev-ing you can heal.
in prayer for oth-ers may I find the se-cret of re-lease.
let me not brood up-on my needs, but sim-ply tell you all.
I long to feel your heal-ing touch; will you not make me whole?

- 5 But if the thing I most desire is not your way for me,
may faith, when tested in the fire,
prove its integrity.
- 6 Of all my prayers, may this be chief:
till faith is fully grown,
Lord, disbelieve my unbelief,
and claim me as your own.

This prayer for healing was written for the ecumenical St. Barnabas Counseling Centre in Norwich, England. As hymns often do, it provides a model for how to pray honestly but not selfishly. It is set to a tune by an Anglican clergyman who wrote on scientific and musical matters.
