ACOLYTE PROCESSION VIDEO

HYMN #772 (vs. 1, 2, 4)
“Live Into Hope”
Live into hope of captives freed, of sight regained, the end of greed.
The oppressed shall be the first to see the year of God’s own jubilee!
Live into hope! The blind shall see with insight and with clarity,
Removing shades of pride and fear, a vision of our God brought near.
Live into hope of captives freed from chains of fear or want or greed.
God now proclaims our full release to faith and hope and joy and peace.

HEBREW SCRIPTURE LESSON  Deuteronomy 6:20-25  Kathryn Ophardt, seminary intern
When your children ask you in time to come, “What is the meaning of the decrees and the statutes and the ordinances that the Lord our God has commanded you?” then you shall say to your children, “We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. The Lord displayed before our eyes great and awesome signs and wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his household. He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land that he promised on oath to our ancestors. Then the Lord commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our lasting good, so as to keep us alive, as is now the case. If we diligently observe this entire commandment before the Lord our God, as he has commanded us, we will be in the right.”

Leader:  This is the word of the Lord.
People:  Thanks be to God!

TIME FOR CHILDREN & FAMILIES  The Rev. Schoenewolf

HYMN #52  “When Israel Was in Egypt’s Land”  GO DOWN MOSES
When Israel was in Egypt’s land, let my people go;
Oppressed so hard they could not stand, let my people go!
Refrain:  Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt’s land;
Tell old Pharaoh: let my people go!

“Thus saith the Lord,” bold Moses said, “Let my people go!
If not, I’ll smite your first-born dead. Let my people go!” (Refrain)

No more shall they in bondage toil: let my people go!
Let them come out with Egypt’s spoil: let my people go! (Refrain)
O let us all from bondage flee; let my people go!
And let us all in Christ be free: let my people go! (Refrain)

GREETINGS FROM JO HAAS, LOUISVILLE, KY

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION  The Rev. Dr. Bush
NEW TESTAMENT LESSON  Ephesians 6:5-9  The Rev. Dr. Bush
Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, in singleness of heart, as you obey Christ; not only while being watched, and in order to please them, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart. Render service with enthusiasm, as to the Lord and not to men and women, knowing that whatever good we do, we will receive the same again from the Lord, whether we are slaves or free.

And, masters, do the same to them. Stop threatening them, for you know that both of you have the same Master in heaven, and with him there is no partiality.

SERMON  “Redeeming Language”  The Rev. Dr. Bush

HYMN #379 (vs. 1, 3, 5)  “We Shall Overcome”  WE SHALL OVERCOME
We shall overcome; we shall overcome; we shall overcome someday.
Refrain:  O, deep in my heart I do believe we shall overcome someday!
We shall live in peace; we shall live in peace; we shall live in peace someday. (Refrain)
God will see us through; God will see us through; God will see us through today. (Refrain)

Live Into Hope (vs. 1, 2, 4)

1 Live into hope of captives freed, of sight regained, the end of greed. The oppressed shall be the first to see the year of God’s own jubilee!
2 Live into hope! The blind shall see with insight and with clarity, removing shades of pride and fear, a vision of our God brought near.
3 Live into hope of liberty, the right to speak, the right to be, the right to have one’s daily bread, to hear God’s word and thus be fed.
4 Live into hope of captives freed from chains of fear or want or greed. God now proclaims our full release to faith and hope and joy and peace.

This text on Luke 4:16–20, the author’s first, was written for the United Presbyterian Women’s National Meeting in July 1976 because the team planning worship could not find a suitable hymn on that passage. She wrote the words with this vigorous 18th-century tune in mind.

land; tell old Pha - raoh: let my peo - ple go!

Nothing in Hebrew Scripture resonated more deeply with the experience of African Americans in North America than Israel's slavery in Egypt. In this spiritual's recurring line, "Let my people go," past and present became one, as they still do for all who are oppressed.

This lively Zulu/Xhosa freedom song originated in a Methodist young men’s group in South Africa and has gone on to become popular in many other languages around the globe. Some additional stanzas are suggested, but others may be improvised as appropriate to the occasion.

Si - ya - ham - ba

We are marching, marching, we are marching, marching,

we shall live in peace some - day.
we are not a - fraid to - day.
God will see us through to - day.

Refrain
O, deep in my heart I do be - lieve we shall o - ver - come some - day!

Though now associated primarily with the Civil Rights Movement of the mid-20th century, this spiritual most likely dates from the days of the slave trade; and similarities with the tune SICILIAN MARINERS (see no. 546) suggest that it might have been a worksong aboard slave ships.
