LAND OF REST

“Lord, When I Came Into This Life”

CALL TO CONFESSION

Derail Holcomb

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Derail Holcomb

We confess that we often get distracted by demands on our time, the business of life, and the expectations of others that we do not stop and draw near to you. Forgive us, we pray.

We confess that often we get preoccupied with what brings us comfort and ease – even when we find haven in your word – that at times we do not notice nor address the needs of others in our midst.

We are sorry for these times of distraction and disinterest. Forgive us when our focus falters from your desired will. Forgive us when our actions fall short of your call. By your grace redirect us so that we will faithfully enact the love to which you have called us, in Jesus Christ in whom the fullness of your love dwells.

TIME OF SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF GOD’S FORGIVENESS

Derail Holcomb

Leader: We give thanks that we worship a faithful God who draws near to us in love no matter how far we go astray. May our hearts be opened to God’s presence, and reach out in mercy toward others. Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: En Jesucristo tenemos perdón.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

¡Alaben a Dios!

Praise God!

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Ain't Got Time to Die" Hall Johnson

Lord, I keep so busy praising my Jesus, ain't got time to die.

'Cause when I'm healing the sick I'm praising my Jesus, ain't got time to die.

Refrain: 'Cause it takes all of my time to praise my Jesus,
All of my time to praise my Lord.
If I don't praise him the rocks gonna cry out:
"Glory and honor, glory and honor!"
Ain't got time to die.

Lord, I keep so busy working for the kingdom, ain't got time to die.

'Cause when I'm feeding the poor I'm working for the kingdom, ain't got time to die. (Refrain)

Lord, I keep so busy serving my Master, ain't got time to die.

'Cause when I'm giving my all, I'm serving my Master, ain't got time to die. (Refrain)

Now won't you get out of my way, let me praise my Jesus, get out of my way, let me praise my Lord.

If I don't praise him the rocks gonna cry out: "Glory and honor, glory and honor!" Ain't got time to die.

This 20th-century text was created to provide words for this traditional tune named for a small village on the Isle of Mull, off the west coast of Scotland. Through repeated use of "new" and "first," each morning is treated as a re-creation of the promise of the original day.

**The three melodic phrases may be sung consecutively, as a canon, or in any combination.*

This text is a very slight paraphrase of the latter part of Micah 6:8. That verse sums up in a single sentence the legal, ethical, and covenantal requirements of religion. The intertwining of these commitments can be suggested by singing these phrases in an overlapping canon.

This African American spiritual has more depth than may at first appear: for people who are bound in slavery to sing about dedicating themselves to God's use shows a profound awareness of God-given self-worth despite circumstances that would deny their human or spiritual value.

Written for the confirmation of the author's son, this text of self-dedication also voices our recurring individual need to recommit ourselves in less formal ways. The familiar shape note tune enhances a sense of finding our place among God's people from all times and places.

TODAY AT ELPC

Film Viewing: "Torture in Our Name"

The Justice Committee invites you to a screening of Torture in Our Name following today's worship service in the Garth Overlook Room. Snacks will be provided. You can also participate on Zoom (Meeting ID: 813 9907 9756, Passcode: 227411).

In this compelling 35-minute documentary for faith audiences, filmmaker Matthew Gossage showcases the tenacity and resilience of people who have faced the torture of solitary confinement first-hand and are working to end it once and for all.

The film traces the stories of state organizers in Louisiana, New Jersey and New York, where survivors of solitary and their allies have mounted successful legislative campaigns in their respective states. New Jersey (2019) and New York (2021) were the first two states in the nation to legislate bans on long-term isolated confinement.

Need Something to Read?

Pastor Randy Bush left books on a variety of topics to share with the ELPC family. Today and next Sunday, they will be in the Narthex. Please help yourself!

New Summer Building Hours

ELPC will be closed on Mondays for the remainder of the summer. During this time, we hope to provide rest for the building while conserving energy, water, and other resources, and to effectively and equitably navigate staffing shortages. Even with the building closed, the ministry of the church continues: Administrative, Program and Pastoral staff who are currently scheduled to work on Mondays will continue to do so remotely, and, as always, calls will be directed to a pastor on call in the event of an emergency. Know that the church building will remain open the other six days of the week, fully staffed, and ready to welcome you and our community. The building hours are:

Sundays ..... 8 am—4 pm
Mondays ..... Closed
Tuesdays ..... 9 am—8 pm
Wednesdays ..... 9 am—8 pm
Thursdays ..... 9 am—8 pm
Fridays ..... 9 am—5 pm
Saturdays ..... 8 am—4 pm

ELPC's Elevator

Starting on July 25 through the week of Aug 22, the main ELPC elevator will be shut down as it gets modernized and replaced. Please plan your visits to the church accordingly.

New COVID Protocols at ELPC

Face masks are only required at indoor events, such as worship in the Sanctuary or Taizé in the Chapel, when families with small children are present. Individuals are always welcome to wear masks when at ELPC and masks will continue to be made available. ELPC will continue to adhere to the guidelines of the CDC and Allegheny County Health Department, and may shift guidelines as community conditions dictate.

IPNC Update

The Interim Pastor Nominating Committee (IPNC) is finishing up a draft of the Ministry Information Form (MIF). The MIF is our church's job description for potential interim pastoral candidates to review. After our MIF is completed, it is sent to the Pittsburgh Presbytery for review and approval. Once the Presbytery signs off on our MIF, then the IPNC will share it with our Session for their review and approval. What can you do to help?

- Pray for Pastors Heather and Patrice as they lead us during this time ahead of an interim pastor.
- Pray for the ELPC congregation that God will prepare us for our interim pastor.
- Pray for the IPNC for God's discernment as we continue to move through this process.
- Pray for the candidates and their families as they discern God's call to apply for our interim pastor position.
- Pray for Session as they work with the IPNC to eventually call an interim pastor to ELPC.

Summer Choir

If you would like to sing with the summer choir when we worship in the Courtyard, please contact Dr. Ed Moore (EdM@coh.net). Rehearsals will be at 9 am on Sunday mornings to sing for the 10 am service.

Film Discussion: "Day of the Stranger" — July 24

Join us on Sunday, July 24 after the 10 am worship service for a short 30 minute film made in 2021 about Trappist monk Thomas Merton, one of the most influential spiritual writers of the twentieth century. Through rare audio recordings, this film explores the final years of Merton's life from 1965-1968, when he lived as a hermit in the Kentucky woods. Interweaving meditative images of his hermitage nestled deep in the woods of Kentucky and rare audio recordings he made as a hermit, the film pieces together a first-person narrative of one of the twentieth century's most brilliant minds. For more info, visit www.dayofastranger.com/home. RSVP to Pastor BJ by Saturday, July 23 (BJW@coh.net). Snacks will be provided.

As a caring congregation of faith, we ask you to remember the following people in your prayers:

Carol Bonner's mother,
Carol Chontos' niece Kailey and her family,
Dave and Bobby Egelston's daughter-in-law Natasha,

Rev. Dr. Brent Johnston from Kansas,
