Responding Compassionately to a Hurting World

with Rev Sarah Robbins

Camp Crestfield
March 6-7, 2026

Hosted by Presbyterian Women in East Liberty Presbyterian Church

Responding Compassionately to a Hurting World

Rev. Sarah Robbins will lead us in a deep dive into the wisdom of prophets who lived with compassion in times of violence and despair. Richard Rohr's new book, The Tears of Things: Prophetic Wisdom for an Age of Outrage, will be our launching pad.

We will practice responding faithfully to an unjust world. We will pray, discuss, reflect and worship. We will make a joyful noise with singing. We will renew ourselves through play and rest.

Rev Sarah Robbins

Rev. Sarah Robbins has the privilege of serving as the Covenant Pastor for Connection and Care at ELPC.

For the last 15 years she has served as an interim/transitional pastor to five congregations in Pittsburgh Presbytery, where she is currently on the Executive Committee. She and her husband Rev. Ben Robbins, along with their 9 1/2 yr old Liam, have great memories of working, worshipping and being on retreat at Camp Crestfield.

Hunger Offering

We will receive a hunger offering at each meal to support EECM. Please bring loose change and small bills for this offering.
